Re: U.S.A. v. Chen, et al. 99 CR-964 (ERK)

Dear Judge Korman:

On Thursday, June 22, 2006, I was apprised for the first time of your decision of April 12, 2006 denying my client, Lung-Fong Chen's Motion for resentencing. I found this out by way of a phone call from the Assistant US Attorney handling the case.

I was also informed that according to the Marshall my client was to surrender to Pennsylvania institution on June 15th and that the Marshall's office had called the Assistant to find out what to do.

As far as I know, Mr. Chen was never advised that he had to surrender; and received no notice for the Marshall or anybody else. He is an honorable person and will certainly surrender as required...assuming he knows when he is to surrender. I believe there was no Order issued setting a new surrender date.

I would respectfully ask the Court to issue a Surrender Order giving my client a couple of months to wrap up affairs. Had we known of the Order on April 12th, and had he been asked to surrender on June 15th, there would have been the two month period.

I was informed that our office "should have" received electronic notice of your decision but to the best of my knowledge, Your Honor, we never received such a communication. Neither was a copy of any Order served on us by the US Attorney's Office.

Order
The application is granted. The defendant Chen may have until Aug 31
to surrender.

s/Edward Korman
